May Issue

Welcome to the May edition of your newsletter.

This newsletter will be a little abbreviated as your editor is leaving for a little R&R on the West Coast and Alaska. This year as usual I am under direct orders that no computer large enough to produce websites or newsletters will be accompanying us. I will have my new little web book so that we can keep track of our daughter and granddaughter back home via Skype and email.

Hugh Robinson's former editorial assistant has also become a fan of the puzzles and information on the RSS Feed on the front page of the website. Have you tried it out?

Kiwanis Merchandise Update: Sandra has received the merchandise. Pick up the golf shirts you ordered from Sandra. She got a really good deal on Kiwanis Caps, so if you would like one at a great price all Sandra.

Kiwanis BBQ season is nearly upon us. Ray Gesshe is organizing. If you can host a BBQ please call Ray.

Kiwanis at the Olds Trade Fair was a success. The pancakes and sausage were especially good.

If you can deliver library books to the Seniors Lodge on Thursday Mornings for a month, four Thursdays about an hour each. Call Hugh Robinson.

Quotes From

Henny Youngman

A doctor gave a man six months to live. The man couldn't pay his bill, so he gave him another six months.

How to drive a guy crazy: send him a telegram and on the top put 'page 2.

I once wanted to become an atheist, but I gave up - they have no holidays.

I played a great horse yesterday! It took seven horses to beat him.

I take my wife everywhere, but she keeps finding her way back.

I told the doctor I broke my leg in two places. He told me to quit going to those places.

This is an elegant hotel! Room service has an unlisted number.

When I told my doctor I couldn't afford an operation, he offered to touch-up my X-rays.

Why do Jewish men die before their wives? They want to.

Just got back from a pleasure trip: I took my mother-in-law to the airport.

My grandmother is over eighty and still doesn't need glasses. Drinks right out of the bottle.

Member News

We pray for success for Shirley Humphries to enjoy a return to health with her next operation and round of treatments.

Guess what ? We have a new member her name is Andrea Dallas.

President Ray Gesshe and Sponsor Rita Thompson are shown here installing Andrea. Andrea is fairly new to Olds. She came as the manager of the Staples Store which opened about ten month's ago. Andrea has already been busy helping with Kiwanis events and other volunteer positions such as Olds Fashioned Christmas. Welcome Andrea.

May 7th Speaker

Mayor Judy Dahl is always happy to come to a Kiwanis meeting and is always knowledgeable and enthusiastic about the town of Olds. Her presentation today (May 7) was about the principles and strategic plan for Sustainable Living in the town of Olds.

A teacher asked little Johnny if he knows his 1 to 10 well "Yes! Of course! My pop taught me...even more than 10" "Good. What comes after three?" "Four," answers the boy. "What comes after six?" "Seven." "Very good," says the teacher. "Your erm...dad did a good job. Now...so what comes after...lets say ten?" "A jack"
